

IN 2018
RISK OF DEATH FROM OPIOID OVERDOSE
EXCEEDED THAT FROM AUTO ACCIDENTS

On March 6th, BLACK BALLOON DAY recognizes the lives lost to overdose, and supports those left to pick up the pieces.

This year, PBHC, Inc. will provide black balloons or buttons in recognition, support, and remembrance

Perry Behavioral Health Choices, Inc.

(Over for program details)

Perry Behavioral Health Choices, Inc.

Black Balloon Day Program

March 6, 2019 - 11:00 AM

Light lunch, Presentation, & Music;

PBHC Activity Center, 112 S. Main St.

for those who choose, a walk to Stanton Villa will follow

Noon - 6:00 PM

Open House, Tours, Information, & Refreshments

At all of our New Lexington sites:

PBHC Activity Center, 112 S. Main St.

Evolution, 106 S. Main St.

Twice Turned Bookstore, 203½ N. Main St.

Outpatient; Youth and Family Services, 203 N. Main St.

Eclipse, 207 N. Main St.

Sobriety Village, 213 & 215 N. Main St

Administration, 221 N. Main St.

Stanton Villa, 227 N. Main St.

ClearView, 511 N. Main St.