WEEK ONE: (June 3-7) Musical Theatre [Grades 4-8] Disney: The Movies-The Music A 25 minute show celebrating 75 years of Disney magic. Meagan Mason is the drama director and a teacher at Crooksville Elementary. Roger Dusenberry is the choir director and organist for St. Rose.

WEEK TWO: (June 10-14) Dance Mania [Grades 4-8] Explore a variety of dance styles. Sophia Marolt just finished her freshman year at Ohio University and has years of dance experience with Darla's Dancers.

WEEK THREE: (June 17-21) Keyboarding Grades 3-8 Ryan Garner is an elementary music teacher for NLCS. Learn the basics of keyboarding and present a variety of selections.

WEEK FOUR: (June 24-28) Art [Grades 4-8] Tamy Sullivan is the middle school art teacher for NLCS. Explore a variety of art mediums and display your work.

WEEK FIVE: (July 8-12) Workshop One: Recyclable/Reusable Art [Grades 1-4] Kathy Murdock has worked with various age groups as an educational aide. She was a Headstart teacher and after school monitor. The group will be creating arts and crafts from items donated by county residents. These articles will be assembled by the individual participants.

Workshop Two: [Grades 6-8] "My Story in 100 Words". Each student will write an original story based on fact that happened in his or her life. The best stories will be sent into Reader's Digest for possible publication. The stories will be limited to 100 words or less and written from a personal viewpoint that is aimed at the empathetic reader. Monday/Tuesday Katrina Carpenter (PC Waste Reduction & Recycling) will make paper while Dave Kunkler (retired teacher/author) has them write. On days Wed.-Fri. Betsy Martin (retired drama/English teacher/playwright) will do playwriting. Students will write scenes and perform them. These two workshops will run the same week at the same time.

SAVE THE DATE: On August 10th, we will showcase student work at our banquet.
