Ohio Department of Health Clarifies Today's Hospital Numbers

COLUMBUS – The Ohio Department of Health today issued a clarification about the antigen report backlog's impact on today's COVID-19 hospitalization number. Today's increase in reported hospital admissions included approximately 100 hospital admissions of probable COVID-19 cases from the backlogged antigen reports. This contributed to today's reported hospitalization admissions of 657.

Further information on the backlog of antigen cases is available here.
