

TRANSPORTATION HAS CHANGED AT PCBDD!

- Transportation providers for individuals served by the Perry County Board of Developmental Disabilities (PCBDD) changed on 9/1/16.
- Perry County Transit (PCT) now provides transportation services to individuals attending PerCo and Creative Opportunities.*
- The transition is complete and you are formally invited to attend a Community Forum to address issues, concerns and provide feedback about the transportation process at PCBDD.
- A Community Forum is scheduled Monday, 9/26/16 at 5:30 p.m. at PerCo. The forum will address the recent changes in transportation, along with discussion to address other upcoming changes and plans for PerCo & Creative Opps. independence from the county board.*
- Anyone is welcome to attend this informational session. PCBDD staff will be present, along with staff from PCT to answer questions and address any issues or concerns. We hope to see you there!

COMMUNITY FORUM SCHEDULED

WHEN

Monday, September 26th at 5:30 p.m.

WHERE

PerCo, Inc.
2235 State Route 13, New Lexington, OH

WHO

ANYONE— Community members, providers, staff, and people impacted by the change are welcome.